

Mobile Chain Inspection

Description

By means of the mobile chain inspection system lifting and drag chains can be inspected as to transversal cracks by using a mobile power pack and a closed magnetizing coil.

The compact construction is perfectly useable for being transported in service vehicles (e. g. station wagons resp. family cars).