

Video kit

Description

The kit comprises a borescope, a camera (Canon G Series), a high-performance LED handle and all necessary adapters. This permits visualisation on the camera's monitor, as well as magnification, storage and image processing. Video clips can also be recorded. The high-performance LED handle ensures complete off-line operation of the system.